Copy of letter No. 514/42-43 dated 2nd June 43 from the Revenue Sub Division Officer, Bangalore, to the Revenue Commissioner & Civil Representative.

Subject: Requisition of land for Bulk Petrol Storage tank in Yelahanka.

I beg to state that a requisition was received in this office from the Executive Engineer, Aviation Division for the acquisition of certain lands at Yelahanka for installing Bulk Petrol Storage Tank there. It was mentioned in the letter that the lands required might be leased out for one year and early action taken for the acquisition. I have inspected these lands. They comprise portions of S.Nos. 189/6, 191/3 and 123/3 in the limits of Yelahanka village. The total extent required is 4 acres 28 guntas. All these are dry fields. The khatedars have no objection for the leasing out of these lands or their permanent acquisition. I am taking necessary action for the permanent acquisition through the Deputy Commissioner. A compensation of Rs 30/- per acre may be paid. This works up to Rs 141/- and payable for 1943-44. A copy of the letter received from the Executive Engineer, Aviation Division is enclosed for kind reference.

Copy of letter No. L. 9/1646 dated 9th Feb. 43 from the Executive Engineer, Aviation Division, Bangalore to the Civil Officer, Bangalore.

Subject: Requisition of land for B. P. S. at Job 524.

I am enclosing a village plan marking thereof the land required as well a as the extent of area. The lands, for the time being, may be leased out for one year. As the works are urgent, I request that early action may kindly be taken to acquire these lands. If any delay is apprehended, the Civil Officer, Mysore Government, may kindly be addressed to hand over these lands pending formal acquisition.
